

Bookkeeping Emergency Plan

What to do when your books are months behind

The First Rule: Stop trying to fix everything today

Most business owners get stuck because they're looking at six months, twelve months, or even years of bookkeeping all at once. Your goal is not perfection, it's progress.

The 5-Step Emergency Plan

Step 1: Gather your records

Collect:

- Bank statements
- Credit card statements
- PayPal reports
- Stripe reports
- Receipts
- Loan documents

Step 2: Figure out how far behind you are

- 1-3 months
- 4-6 months
- 7-12 months
- 12+ months

Step 3: Create a list of missing items

- Bank statements
- Credit Card Statements
- Receipts
- Payment Processor Reports

Step 4:

- Work one month at a time
- Don't jump around
- Finish one month before moving to the next

Step 5: Create a simple maintenance routine

- Once you're caught up:
- Review transactions monthly
- Save receipts consistently
- Track expenses regularly
- Use a bookkeeping checklist

Emergency Cleanup Checklist

- Gather statements
- Gather receipts
- Organize documents
- Review expenses
- Record missing transactions
- Create catch-up schedule
- Complete first month
- Establish monthly routine
